

My Self Managed Website

Joomla! "Experience the Freedom!". It has never been easier to create your own dynamic site. Manage all your content from the best content management systems available. Take control of your own website. Queensland City Media will set you up and provide support as required, based upon an hourly rate. *$65.00 per hour for Joomla website tuition and training.

This is the easiest way to own and manage your very own fully functional website, with the luxury of developing your own concepts and branding, saving thousands of dollars and learning as you go...

How do i get started?

Send us an email outlining which of the following best describes your situation:

I have an idea for a domain name and would like you to register the name, or

I have a registered domain name and would like QCM to host the domain so that i can start to learn how to develop my own site, or Call or email your requirements and we will offer a great package at a budget price, for you to start on your project today...

Only $1500.00 + GST and you are on your way to business success.

Below, are two examples of self managed Joomla Websites. These sites are managed successfully by the business owners and include an on-line store in both cases. Virtuemart e-commerce websites for on-line shopping...

www.cherriebaby.com.au/

www.bedroomboutique.com.au/
^